Indigenous Tour

Explore the indigenous culture in the historical center of Bogotá

We will learn about the displacement and resistance stories of the indigenous tribes, while we explore the legacy left by them in Colombia.
Includes: transport, food tastings, accident insurance and bilingual guide, ticket to museo del oro.

3:30 Horas Duration × 250.000 Cop Starting price

Paloquemao Tour

Visit the most popular local market in the city

Paloquemao brings together popular culture and the culinary secrets of the country. In this tour you will see the diversity of products and their history in the corridors of the market.
Includes: transport, food tastings, accident insurance and bilingual guide

3:30 Horas Duration × 285.000 Cop Starting price

Street food

Let's eat some street food

The history of Colombia can also be told through our street food. We will walk around one of the most traditional neighborhoods of the capital, meanwhile we taste the diversity of our typical food.
Includes: transport, food tastings, accident insurance and bilingual guide

3:30 Horas Duration × 220.000 Cop Starting price

Street art

Discover the contemporary art movement in Bogotá

The graffiti scene is reinvented every day in Bogotá and it reflects the story of common people, those that don't appear in history books. We will discover an open sky gallery in the center of the city.

2:30 Horas Duration × 160.000 Cop Starting price

Shopping

Buy local in little known spaces.

We will find spaces where Colombian designers have gather to present novel proposals with 100% local products.
Includes: transport, accident insurance and bilingual guide.

4:00 Horas Duration × 222.000 Cop Starting price